

Free Screenings of Pet Fooled: A Look Inside A Questionable Industry

Green Acres Kennel Shop is offering several free screenings of the documentary Pet Fooled: A Look Inside A Questionable Industry by Kohl Harrington. This film provides a critical review of the pet food industry, and it is not pretty. After watching Pet Fooled, you will realize that big pet food companies may not be as concerned about your pet's health and wellness as they want you to believe.

Issues explored in Pet Fooled include; regulatory lapses which led to the pet food recalls of 2007, the high-powered marketing used to promote food that is not biologically appropriate for cats or dogs, confusing but legal advertising that makes pet foods look better than they are, and the major pet food companies problematic influence over veterinary education and the regulation of pet foods, and more.

Each screening of Pet Fooled will be followed by a question and answer period. Seating is free but limited, so please call us at 945-6841 to reserve your seat. A raffle for a door prize will take place at each screening. Current screening dates are:

- Saturday, May 13th at 3:30 PM
- Saturday, May 20th at 9:30 AM
- Wednesday, June 7th at 6:30 PM
- Monday, June 26th at 6:30 PM.

If there is sufficient interest, additional dates may be added.
